Q.No. 11: Is there any restriction for filling up number of choices of Institutions (Colleges) or subjects in choice filling form?

Ans: No, you can give as many choices as you wish. However choices should be in order of preference, as the allotment is done on the basis of choices submitted by the qualified candidate in order of preference given by the candidate and as per availability.

Q.No.12: Can I have some idea about the seat I am likely to get at my rank?

Ans: You can have some idea by

- a. Please log on to www.mcc.nic.in / www.mohfw.nic.in website – from home page go to medical counseling – open post-Graduate counseling (for previous years) – open composite allotment list. From the information that you will see, you get some idea of pattern in previous year(s). This will only be indicative (without any guarantee for the current year).

b. Processing of Mock Counseling Result and publication of Indicative Seat Allotment

During the Mock Counseling, choices submitted by the candidates will be processed once during the counseling period (Registration) and indicative seat that is likely available at that point of time would be displayed, before allotment of Round-1. This result of indicative helps the candidate to refine the selection of choices more effective and efficient manner. Indicative allotment of seat (Mock allotment), will be shown once on notified date (will be notified on this MCC website). The result will be made available on the next day. In case no indicative seat is shown as allotted to you, this indicates that none of the choices submitted by you were available at your rank. Hence you should modify your list of choices as per your rank.

Q.No. 13. Is it necessary to fill up the choices and lock the choices to get seat allotted? Or I will be allotted seat automatically from available seats?

Ans: After online registration (registration is compulsory to take part in online allotment process), you have to fill in choice of subjects and Institutions/colleges in order of preference. Once choice is filled in, it can be modified before locking it. During the choice locking period it is necessary to lock the choices to get a print of your submitted choices. If candidate does not lock the choice submitted by him/her, submitted choices by him/her will be automatically locked on notified date at notified time, however you will be allowed to take a print of your choices after that but you will not be permitted to modify your choices.

If you don't register and fill in any choice, you will not be allotted any seat.

If you register and do not fill in any choice, you will not be allotted any seat.

Important:

Don't wait till the last minute to lock your choices and to take a printout. Please go through your submitted choices before locking as once you lock the choices the same cannot be modified or changed even if you have made a mistake. Mistake in filling choices may result in allotment of a seat which you never wanted.

Q.No. 14: Is it necessary to join allotted Medical/Dental College to get chance to participate in next round (2nd round)?

Ans: Yes, in case a seat is allotted during the round 1 , candidate is required to join allotted institution/college and complete the admission formalities then only candidate can exercise option to participate in next round (2nd round).

Please note that in case you do not give option to participate in Round-2 at the time of joining of seat allotted during Round -1, you will not be considered eligible for participating in Round-2 (i.e for up-gradation of your choice).

Q.No. 15: What is second round of online allotment process? (For Academic year 2016-17)

Ans: Second round of online allotment process is Fresh choice filling and fresh allotment of seat as per choice and merit. (For Academic year 2016-17)

There is no fresh registration of candidates however there will be Fresh Choice submission for 2nd Round of Counselling and eligible candidate will be allotted seat on basis of choice and merit of the candidate.

Who are eligible for 2nd Round of allotment?

Candidates eligible for seat allotment in 2nd round would be from one of the following groups:

Group-I: Registered candidates who did not get any seat allotted in the 1st round.

Group-II: Registered candidates, whose 1st round of allotted Seat Cancelled during the document verification on reporting for admission, who have secured seat under reserved quota, due to change of Category from reserved to Unreserved or PH status from Yes to No, but are still eligible in the next round of seat allotment, with changed Category, subject to fulfilment of eligibility conditions.

Group–III: Candidates who have reported/joined at allotted institute during the joining period of round-1 of allotment and submitted willingness for participating in second round up-gradation as Yes.

Who are not eligible for 2nd Round of allotment?

- Not reported at Allotted Institute after seat allotment in 1st round
- Reported & Withdrawn (Resigned) from counseling at Allotted Institute.
- Became non-eligible due to change of category.
- Candidates who have not opted for up-gradation.

The conversion of seats will be carried out during the second round of seat allotment and accordingly, the candidates are required keep this aspect also mind while filling up the seats during choice filling period before allotment of round-1. The conversion of vacant reserved seats will be done as per the following algorithm after allotment of seat during Round-2 to PH/Reserved category candidates:

ST (PH) -> ST
SC(PH) -> SC
UR (PH) -> UR
OBC(PH) -> OBC
ST -> SC
SC-> UR

There will not be any indicative allotment in 2nd round of allotment,

Q.No. 16: Do I have to fill-up choices of subject and College to participate in second round of online allotment process separately?

Ans: Yes. For second round, candidates are required to submit fresh choice (For Academic Year 2016-17). During the second round of online allotment process, the choice of higher preference will be considered for up-gradation for those candidates who give option to upgrade their choice at the time of admission at allotted Medical/Dental College. During Round-2, fresh allotment will be considered for those eligible candidates who could not be allotted seat due to non-availability of seat in Round-1, subject to availability of seat.

Q.No. 17: If sufficient number of qualified PH candidates are not available then, what will happen to those un-allotted PG seats, reserved for PH candidates?

Ans: The un-allotted PG seats earmarked for UR-PH, SC-PH, ST-PH and OBC-PH will be reverted/converted to respective categories like SC-PH to SC and so on, during the second round of allotment process after processing choices to PH category candidates in second round.

Q.No. 18: If I give consent for up-gradation of my choice during round-2 and if my choice is upgraded, is it necessary to join at college allotted during second round? Or in case I change my decision of upgrading choice, can I continue to study in college allotted through first round of allotment?

Ans: In case candidate is allotted seat during the round-2 of allotment process (choice is up-graded), the seat allotted during the first round will be automatically cancelled immediately (and allotted to somebody else eligible as per merit) and candidate will have to join the college/seat allotted during second round. If candidate does not join the college/seat allotted during the second round, within stipulated time, as per schedule, from the date of allotment, the candidate will forfeit his/her allotted seat and will lose the only seat for which he/she is eligible.

Seat can also be up-graded in the same college by change of category (i.e. ST/SC/OBC to UR or PH to non-PH seat) in such a case the candidate has to take fresh admission on the up-graded seat.

Q.No 19: If I give option to participate in round-2 at the time of joining college from first round allotment, but later change my decision and want to continue study at already allotted Medical /Dental College, what is the procedure to avoid change (cancellation) of already allotted college/seat?

Ans: Option once exercised cannot be changed therefore the candidate must submit choice during the choice submission period before the round One of counseling, and exercise option to upgrade choice during Round -2 very carefully. However, in case the candidate change his/her mind during the joining period itself, the candidate may contact the Dean/Principal/Director of the allotted college for modification of entry regarding participation in Round-2, in the software (only during joining /reporting period), which is exclusively available with allotted college. The Medical Counseling Committee (MCC) does not have facility to modify the candidate's option. Hence, no request for change of option shall be entertained by the MCC.

Q.No. 20: If I forget my password that I have created during the process of registration, how to retrieve it.

Ans: To retrieve the forgotten password, system facilitates the following process:

The candidate is required to enter the information that he/she filled at the time of registration and then the security question & answer thereon to be entered as given during New Candidate registration process. The above data submitted by candidate will be validated with the registered candidates' database. If the above entries match, then only the candidate would be permitted to enter new password to proceed further.

IMPORTANT

Candidates are advised to remember the password and also retain their application form and admit cards printout ready till completion of admission process. It is not possible for MCC/NIC to retrieve such password.

Q.No. 21: In case I have Birth Certificate / Caste Certificate/ other certificate(s) in regional language, will it be acceptable at the time of reporting/joining?

Ans: Certificates issued by the competent authority should be in English or Hindi language. Please remember that some of the states insist for certificate in English language only. Candidates are advised to carry Certified Copy of English version of the original certificate, in case certificate issued is in other than English language along with original certificate.

Q.No. 22: If there is discrepancy in spelling of name in documents and application form, what do I do?

Ans: If there is discrepancy in spelling of name in documents candidate must carry proof that the documents belongs to same person, in the form of an affidavit/undertaking.

Q.No. 23: Can I get prospectus (information Bulletin) of All India Post Graduate Medical / Dental Entrance Examination for the current year for admission to All India Quota post- graduate medical / Dental courses for admission to 50% of total seats on all-India basis?

Ans: Copy of prospectus is available on NBE website <http://www.nbe.gov.in> for Medical seats and AIIMS website <http://aiimsexams.org> for dental seats.

Q.No. 24: What about condition of Stipend / fee structure / course duration / bond amount / rendering of service in rural / tribal area/ other conditionalities.

Ans: Stipend /fee structure/ course duration / bond amount / rendering of service in rural / tribal area/ other conditions etc. may vary from State to State and Institute to Institute. Some seats may be approved/ permitted but not yet recognised by MCI. The allotment made through online allotment process will be firm and final as per Hon'ble Supreme Court's directions. Therefore, the candidates should well examine these points before opting for a seat at a medical college. The Medical Counseling Committee (MCC) shall neither be responsible nor shall entertain any case on above grounds, if any. The information received from various participating Medical / Dental Colleges has been made available on Ministry of Health & Family Welfare / MCC website (under the Medical Counseling - Post-graduate Counseling - Information about college, fee, bond information etc.). Candidates are advised to visit the website of college/ institution to check the information. In case they require any additional information, they can contact the college / institution on telephone.

Q.No.25: How to use registration and Choice filling form on website?

Ans: Candidates will have to log on to website www.mcc.nic.in to get registered (Registration facility will open on dates as mentioned in Schedule) and then fill in choices. It is advised that after going through the seat matrix, a tentative list may be prepared first as per your preference of subjects and colleges, before attempting to fill choices on-line.

Q.No. 26: What is indicative seat allotment (mock counseling) result?

Ans: Indicative seat allotment is the seat available for allotment to candidate at the time of processing of data by computer from choices submitted by the particular candidate. The indicative seat is to facilitate candidates to modify, add or delete choices. The indicative seat allotted shown on these dates does not guarantee that the same seat will be allotted finally (during first round).

Q.No. 27: Difficulty in login, what may be the problem(s)?

Ans: Please read User manual for the candidates. Follow the instructions about use of browser (Mozilla Fire Fox, Internet Explorer-6 or above, Google Chrome), use of same spellings, same format of date (Use digits for day, month and year with - in between) as in application form submitted to NBE or AIIMS New Delhi. The internet connection should be uninterrupted. If internet connection interruption takes place, the IP address which is being monitored will change and session expired message will be displayed. Please try to login from other computer from which other candidate(s) has logged in successfully, if possible.

Q.No. 28: I have difficulty in Creating Password, what may be the problem(s)?

Ans: Creation of password should be as per password policy. Please follow the password policy. Please use the internet browser as suggested in user manual, as it is difficult to login from some of the other browsers. While creating password avoid using Caps Lock key, instead of Caps Lock use shift key.

Q.No. 29: When I try to login for choice filling/ submission, It say wrong roll number/ password, what may be problem(s)?

Ans: This can happen if Roll Number/Testing ID typed is incorrect or password typed is incorrect. Password is case sensitive, therefore use password which was created by user exactly same as typed while creating. In case password is forgotten, try to generate new password by using security question and its answer.

Q.No.30: What are the guidelines for choice filling before round one of online allotment process?

Ans: The candidates are advised to fill in choice carefully for seats in order of preference as during the round two candidates, subject to fulfillment of eligibility will be considered for up-gradation of choice from higher given preference.

Q.No. 31: Can I modify my choices during the choice submission period for counseling ?

Ans: Yes, you can modify, add or delete your choices during this period, before you lock your choices. However, the registration (of New Users) is permitted up to date and time specified in Counseling Schedule, only.

Please note that you have to lock your choice by date and time specified in Counseling Schedule.

Q.No. 32: I have not locked my choices before the time specified in counseling schedule on last date of choice locking, what will happen to my choices?

Ans: The choices submitted and saved by you will be locked by the system at the time of last date/ date of choice locking as mentioned in Counseling Schedule, automatically.

Q.No. 33: How can I get print out of my choices which system has locked? Ans: After the specified time of last date / date of choice locking (or after choice locking) print out can be taken from MCC website after login by the Candidate, link is available on the left hand side of the page as "Print Lock Choice".

Q.No. 34: If I opt to participate in second round of counseling whether my allotted seat (of first round) will be cancelled?

Ans: In case you are not allotted any seat in the second round you will retain earlier allotted seat (if you have already completed admission formalities and not resigned from the allotted seat). However, on allotment of a seat in second round the earlier allotted seat will automatically be cancelled and allotted to another candidate.

Q.No. 35: If I get an up-graded seat during second round can I join that college directly?

Ans: No, you will have to get a relieving letter from the earlier institute/college generated on-line, before you can join the next college / institution.

Q.No. 36: In case I get an upgraded seat but in the same college, because of change of category, (e.g. from SC / ST / OBC to UR category) do I have to take admission on the allotted seat again?

Ans: Yes, you have to get a relieving letter generated on-line for the earlier seat and then get an admission letter again generated on-line for the upgraded category seat from the concerned institution; otherwise your seat would be cancelled or surrendered to state quota.

Q.No. 37: Can I know which of the seats are recognized or permitted by the MCI?

Ans: You may refer the MCI website, www.mciindia.org or Ministry of Health & Family Welfare website www.mohfw.nic.in for this.

Q.No. 38: At the time of admission will my original certificates be retained by the allotted college/institution?

ANS.: Yes, all the participating colleges/ institutions have been instructed to retain original certificates of admitted students and release them only on up-gradation of the seat or resignation by the candidate.

Q.No. 39. In case some of the Post-graduate seats are sanctioned by the Medical Council of India/ Central Government after start of Counseling (as per Counseling Schedule) will they be added in seat matrix (available seats).

Ans.: As per the "Time Schedule for completion of Admission Process for PG (Broad Speciality) Medical Courses for All India and State Quota" notified in the Gazette of India : Extraordinary, notification dated 29th December 2015, approved by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in IA Number 7 & 8 in Writ Petition (Civil) no. 76 of 2015 in Ashish Ranjan & Ors.
