

Notice

For candidates whose PG seats has been up-graded during 2nd/3rd Round

1. In case the seat has been up-graded during 2nd round of allotment, the candidate must report to the college allotted during first round of counseling, get the MCC website software generated relieving letter duly signed by college authorities and the candidate and then report to college where the candidate has been allotted seat through second round of counseling, as early as possible. Candidates are advised not to wait for last day.
2. The candidate and all participating college to please note that in case the seat has been upgraded (or allotted seat during third round) in same subject/course by change of category, in this case also the candidate is required to get relieving from earlier allotted seat and join the up-graded seat by completing admission formalities on MCC software.
3. In case the candidate is allotted seat during third round of allotment, the candidate must report to the college allotted during earlier round (where candidate is admitted at the time of allotment through third round) of counseling, get the MCC website software generated relieving letter duly signed by college authorities and the candidate and then report to college where the candidate has been allotted seat through third round of counseling, as early as possible. Candidates are advised not to wait for last day..
4. In case candidate's seat is up-graded (or seat allotted to a candidate who is already admitted through All India Quota, during third round), the candidate must, get the MCC website software generated relieving letter duly signed by college authorities and the candidate. The candidate once upgraded during the second round or third round, she/he cannot change her/his option, in case she/he does not report for getting relieving letter then also, her/his seat will be automatically cancelled.
